ARHPC
Association for Rural Health Professional Coding

The Association of Rural Heath Professional Coding Presents:

Documentation and Coding for Behavioral and Mental Health Services

What you will learn:

- Introductions and general comments
- Psychiatry codes in CPT with discussion of documentation and reporting guidelines
- Diagnostic Interviews, therapeutic procedures (e.g., psychotherapy)
- HCPCS II Codes
- New versus established patients
- RHC and FQHC considerations (e.g., G-codes for FQHC)
- Importance of documenting time to support time-based psychotherapy codes
- Telehealth including discussion of modifier -95 and Appendix P
- Chief complaints and documenting the "Key" components
- History, Examination, Medical Decision Making (MDM) vs. Time
- Q&A

Date/Time: April 12th, 2017 - 12:30pm - 1:30pm EST

Where: Online Webinar

Price: $29.99

CEU's: 1 CEU Approved by AAPC and ARHPC

Can't attend: Course will be available after live course

Enroll Now - Limited to first 100 Registrants

Online http://www.ruralhealthcoding.com/store/view_product.asp?id=8657007

Phone: 404-642-6858

Meet your Instructor:

John Burns is a certified coder and auditor (CPC, CEMC, CPC-I and CPMA) and has worked in the healthcare business arena for more than 20 years. John focuses on correct coding, optimization of the revenue cycle and managing compliance risk for the healthcare business.

His current focus with the Association for Rural Health Professional Coding (ARHPC) centers on providing audit risk assessments and coding review for rural and community health centers across the United States.