

The Association of Rural Health Professional Coding Presents:

Documentation & Reporting Evaluation & Management Services in 2017

What you will learn:

- Introduction and general comments
- New versus established patients
 - RHC and FQHC considerations (e.g., G-codes for FQHC)
- Problem-Oriented versus Preventive encounters
- Office and other outpatient visits
- Tele-health including discussion of modifier -95 and Appendix P
- Smoking Cessation Service
- Chronic (and Complex) Chronic Care Services
- Transitional Care Management Services (TCM)
- Chief complaints and documenting the “Key” components
 - History, Examination, Medical Decision Making (MDM) vs. Time

Date/Time: April 18th, 2017 - 12:30pm - 1:45pm EST

Followed by live Q&A

Where: Online Webinar (with live Q&A) or Watch Now (with no live Q&A)

Price: $29.99

CEU's: 1 CEU Approved by AAPC and ARHPC *If more than 1 person needs CEU's they will need to register individually)

Enroll Now - Limited to first 100 Registrants

Register Online: <https://ruralhealthcoding.site-ym.com/store/ViewProduct.aspx?ID=8694681>

Register by Phone: 404-937-6633 Option 1

Can't attend: Watch Now (with no live Q&A) by choosing the pre-recorded version

Register Online: <https://ARHPC.AbsorbTraining.com>

Meet your Instructor:

John Burns is a certified coder and auditor (CPC, CEMC, CPC-I and CPMA) and has worked in the healthcare business arena for more than 20 years. John focuses on correct coding, optimization of the revenue cycle and managing compliance risk for the healthcare business.

His current focus with the Association for Rural Health Professional Coding (ARHPC) centers on providing audit risk assessments and coding review for rural and community health centers across the United States.